

Service Description

The service offered consists solely of publishing online advertisements on our website, escortineurope.com, by adult women offering services as masseuses, escorts, dominatrixes, and allowing users to view these listings free of charge.

The editorial team is therefore not responsible for the accuracy or content of the ads published on the site, as each advertisement remains entirely under the responsibility of the individual advertiser. In particular, the editorial staff disclaims any liability for misleading or false content, as well as for any damage caused by the advertiser to third parties.

The advertiser expressly agrees not to publish vulgar, obscene, defamatory, offensive texts or content that violates the dignity of others, nor to use the service for purposes that are unlawful, immoral, or in bad taste. The editorial staff reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to reject the publication of ads that do not meet basic standards of respect and decency. By submitting an ad, the advertiser declares to be of legal age and not to use the ad for illicit profit-making purposes.

The editorial team does not maintain any direct relationship with advertisers, except for the communication necessary to authorize the publication of the content, which is submitted voluntarily. For this reason, no liability can be attributed to the service operator.

Ads containing explicit references to paid sexual services, promoting or facilitating prostitution, child pornography, incitement to violence, or any other illegal activity will not be accepted.

Finally, the editorial team accepts no responsibility for the viewing of content that may be deemed immoral or illegal, if such content is accessible through external links found in the ads. In such cases, the advertiser remains fully liable.

Therefore, such content may not be copied, distributed, or reproduced in any form.

The advertiser agrees not to perform reverse engineering, decompilation, or any analysis of the software associated with the Service, either directly or through third parties.
